Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I'm a fairly recent discoverer of the most interesting "Whitewash" books. My husband is in the Air Force and we lived overseas from Jan. '69 to June '74. Unfortunately the base libraries did not carry any of your books.

It was quite uplifting to read some of them. They seem so organized and so thoroughly researched. You evidently spent a great deal of time in preparation and, happily, they were not among those rushed to print just to "make a buck".

I cannot begin to imagine the frustration you must have experienced during your research attempts. The "closed ranks" attitude of our government and the apathy of Americans are reasons enough to cause feelings of frustration and irritation. Your trials must have been terrific.

It has been very refreshing in the past few days to see some of those in government admitting negligence by the FBI and the CIA. However, last night's edition of Robert McNeil's Report on PBS brought some more disturbances. Sen. Morgan of the Church Committee feels that the assassination investigation should not be re-opened Rather he wants only to investigate whether or not the FBI and CIA were negligent in aiding the Warren Commission. Mr. Phillips, a retired CIA officer who also appeared on the program, felt the investigation should be re-opened. Mr. Phillips was located in Mexico City in November, 1963.

I fear, from viewing this program, that Cuba has already been picked to receive the blame in a future investigation. From what little I've read about Oswald's time in New Orleans, it looks as if he, or someone sponsoring him, was trying to set up both pro-Castro and anti-Castro factions as the scapegoats.

We need a Harold Weisberg serving on the new investigation committee.

One impossible book I and millions of others would love to see published is one with all the photographs taken at the scene with enlargements of important parts and the discussion printed right with each picture.

One quick comment about your book, "Frame-up". It was very well done and your presentation of ideas was so convincing. Shortly after finishing your book I read Frank Gerold's book about the King assassination. It was a rather bizarre one. He gives you three hours of convincing argument of why it had to be a conspiracy then throws it out with two minutes of "— but it didn't happen this way. Ray acted alone." No reasons were given for discarding the evidence he piled up in the beginning of the book.

The only problem with reading books is that so many points arise that I'd like to discuss with the author and, of course, this is impossible.

Now to the main purpose of this letter. I'm enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope. Would you kindly send me a complete list of the books you have published or had published. Because I can't afford to purchase all of your books, I go through the main library in Dayton. They will even purchase books requested. However, I've requested some titles you had listed such as: Post-mortem and P-m II, and the librarian has found no record of them being published. I don't want to miss any of the books you have in print. I'd also like to know if your book,

"Oswald in New Orleans" will ever be available to the public again.

Thank you so much for some very intriguing books. It's a very important subject and you've brought the facts together for many interested Americans. I look forward to many more hours of reading books under the Weisberg banner.

Gratefully yours,
Mary Jane Jones
